

[illegible]

Oxford County Advertiser.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1886.

(Entered as Second Class mail matter.)

SOUTH WATERFORD.

Severe frosts in this vicinity have done considerable damage.

The condition of Josiah Monro is in some respects somewhat improved over a few weeks since, while in others it remains about the same.

Before Justice Brown, on Monday, Samuel Walker of Harrison, was tried for alleged assault on Horace F. Proctor, and fined $5 and costs. Appeared, G. P. Prescott, plaintiff, C. A. Chapin, defendant. Some time ago John Hodgekins was tried for larceny of a wagon from H. F. Proctor, and discharged. There is material enough around Proctor's Mills for a regular legal picnic.

Alvan Stanwood and Wm. W. Watson have gone to Boston for a few days. No expectation about this.

Alfred Murphy of Detroit, Mich., is stopping at Mr. Stanwood's.

LOVELL.

On Sunday afternoon the "ungracious" church at the centre, nine persons were baptized by Rev. Mr. Stanbrook, and twelve were received into the church.

John M. Farrington has bought the "red house" at the centre, of E. T. Secor, and intends to remain there as a residence. Mr. Farrington with his family has gone to Brooklyn to remain until he can dispose of his property there.

F. Kimball & Co. have been drawing grain and flour from Bridgton, which they keep for sale.

The Christian circle met on Tuesday last with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Eastman.

J. L. Meeker is having quite extensive repairs made on his house. W. O. Brown, H. Russell and J. F. Stearns work there.

M. K. Benis has had quite a number of boarders lately.

BRANTFORD.

The match game of base ball played at West Paris on Saturday afternoon, between the West Paris club and the "spoonmakers" of this village, resulted in the defeat of the latter.

It is reported that Almon Fort Campbell is making a trip with his family to California to spend the winter.

Most of the farmers are digging their potatoes, and corn is about ready to cut. Potatoes are rotting quite badly in some sections.

Business is lively at the Grand Trunk station near the village, and also at the pool mill.

C. E. Houghton is treating his lambsome store to a coat of paint.

MILTON PLANTATION.

Mrs. Maria Flannery of Alton, N. H., with her two young daughters, Clara E. and Ida Flannery, are on their way to spend a short time at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Eliza Fenley.

Dr. James P. Elliott, M. D., is remodeling and making general improvements on his summer residence; he is also making a very neat park around the buildings, enclosing the grounds by a nice fence, removing several large boulders and all the small stones on the ground, making an attractive residence on Zircon Hill.

HAVERHILL.

Rev. L. M. Powers from Bates Theological School, son of C. H. Powers of Bethel, gave a very interesting sermon in Union Hall last week.

A Universalist society was formed here the 24th, with Rev. J. W. Houghton, G. H. Gilchrist, called the first Universalist society of Haverhill.

Isaac Bagwell is making extensive repairs on his house.

Smith Bros. brood mare dropped a horse colt of young Nelson—the very picture of his sire. The colt is not named.

Ant Lindy Jewett from Portland, has been visiting friends here, also C. B. Cummings and wife from Norway.

FRANKLIN PLANTATION.

Charles Bissell's large dwelling house, woodhouses, carriage-house and barn with contents of household goods, furniture, carriages and sleighs, with hayrack and farming tools, and a cow were consumed by fire on Wednesday night, the 19th, at 11:30 p. m. Insured for $10,000. The fire was originated in the barn—cause unknown.

We wish to correct an error which appeared in your paper of last week, in regard to the burning of our steam mill. While we do not know how the mill caught fire, it is certain that it did not originate in the dry room as stated by your correspondent.

The room spoken of was a steam dry room in the north side of the mill on the 3d floor, and the fire when discovered was in the roof of the dry room, and in the sawing room, and 2d floor, on the south side which shows it could not have originated in the dry room.

Yours truly,
L. M. & W. E. Mann.

SOUTH CASCO.

Isabelle F. Mitchell has returned from Seago Lake.

Last Tuesday eve (14th) as the boys were celebrating the election here the cannon burst, one-half being thrown about 22 feet, causing much havoc among the many spectators. It should teach the boys to be careful while using gun powder.

Mr. Dingley is about to resume work in the coal shop.

WEBER'S MILLS.

Ernest Cobb began his school at North Windham Tuesday, Sept. 13.

Rev. J. Albert Libby, of West Poland, preached at our school house last Sunday, p. m.

Work has been resuming at the corn shop the past three weeks. Corn in this vicinity has yielded well of excellent quality. They finish canning at the shop the present week.

Al Dyer was sick last week, threatened with typhoid fever, but is able to go out. The doctor reports not only an unusual amount of sickness this month, but some of the most difficult cases he ever was called to.

VERB'S MILLS.

All is quiet and news is scarce.

CASCO.

The Corn Shop of Burdham & Morrill has been opening up his home on the eve of the 15th, and gave him a grand reception. Spiller's band discoursed music, and speeches were made by Messrs. Tolman, of Casco, Tolman, of Harrison, father of the Commissioner of Education, and others, after which a grand collation was served, and all pronounced it a good time.

Deputy Sheriff J. B. Mayberry and his brother, Fred W. Mayberry, are at Portland attending court in the capacity of sheriff and juror.

Mrs. Geo. Walker is selling out. She has some fine cows for sale, also farm and household goods. She intends spending the winter in Portland with her brothers.

This community was saddened by the sudden death of Mrs. Katie Nutting, wife of Geo. Nutting, which occurred on the 17th, after a short but severe illness of two days. The doctors pronounced it an aggravated case of Bright's disease. She was a woman of rare virtues, and of friends and to be missed by a large circle of relatives and friends, and deeply mourned by a widowed mother, a brother and sister.

A young daughter of Elizabeth Meserve, aged seven months, is very sick with what seems like cholera infantum.

Oxford County Advertiser.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1886.

(Entered as Second Class mail matter.)

SOUTH WATERFORD.

Severe frosts in this vicinity have done considerable damage.

The condition of Josiah Monro is in some respects somewhat improved over a few weeks since, while in others it remains about the same.

Before Justice Brown, on Monday, Samuel Walker of Harrison, was tried for alleged assault on Horace F. Proctor, and fined $5 and costs. Appeared, G. P. Prescott, plaintiff, C. A. Chapin, defendant. Some time ago John Hodgekins was tried for larceny of a wagon from H. F. Proctor, and discharged. There is material enough around Proctor's Mills for a regular legal picnic.

Alvan Stanwood and Wm. W. Watson have gone to Boston for a few days. No expectation about this.

Alfred Murphy of Detroit, Mich., is stopping at Mr. Stanwood's.

LOVELL.

On Sunday afternoon the "ungracious" church at the centre, nine persons were baptized by Rev. Mr. Stanbrook, and twelve were received into the church.

John M. Farrington has bought the "red house" at the centre, of E. T. Secor, and intends to remain there as a residence. Mr. Farrington with his family has gone to Brooklyn to remain until he can dispose of his property there.

F. Kimball & Co. have been drawing grain and flour from Bridgton, which they keep for sale.

The Christian circle met on Tuesday last with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Eastman.

J. L. Meeker is having quite extensive repairs made on his house. W. O. Brown, H. Russell and J. F. Stearns work there.

M. K. Benis has had quite a number of boarders lately.

BRANTFORD.

The match game of base ball played at West Paris on Saturday afternoon, between the West Paris club and the "spoonmakers" of this village, resulted in the defeat of the latter.

It is reported that Almon Fort Campbell is making a trip with his family to California to spend the winter.

Most of the farmers are digging their potatoes, and corn is about ready to cut. Potatoes are rotting quite badly in some sections.

Business is lively at the Grand Trunk station near the village, and also at the pool mill.

C. E. Houghton is treating his lambsome store to a coat of paint.

MILTON PLANTATION.

Mrs. Maria Flannery of Alton, N. H., with her two young daughters, Clara E. and Ida Flannery, are on their way to spend a short time at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Eliza Fenley.

Dr. James P. Elliott, M. D., is remodeling and making general improvements on his summer residence; he is also making a very neat park around the buildings, enclosing the grounds by a nice fence, removing several large boulders and all the small stones on the ground, making an attractive residence on Zircon Hill.

HAVERHILL.

Rev. L. M. Powers from Bates Theological School, son of C. H. Powers of Bethel, gave a very interesting sermon in Union Hall last week.

A Universalist society was formed here the 24th, with Rev. J. W. Houghton, G. H. Gilchrist, called the first Universalist society of Haverhill.

Isaac Bagwell is making extensive repairs on his house.

Smith Bros. brood mare dropped a horse colt of young Nelson—the very picture of his sire. The colt is not named.

Ant Lindy Jewett from Portland, has been visiting friends here, also C. B. Cummings and wife from Norway.

FRANKLIN PLANTATION.

Charles Bissell's large dwelling house, woodhouses, carriage-house and barn with contents of household goods, furniture, carriages and sleighs, with hayrack and farming tools, and a cow were consumed by fire on Wednesday night, the 19th, at 11:30 p. m. Insured for $10,000. The fire was originated in the barn—cause unknown.

We wish to correct an error which appeared in your paper of last week, in regard to the burning of our steam mill. While we do not know how the mill caught fire, it is certain that it did not originate in the dry room as stated by your correspondent.

The room spoken of was a steam dry room in the north side of the mill on the 3d floor, and the fire when discovered was in the roof of the dry room, and in the sawing room, and 2d floor, on the south side which shows it could not have originated in the dry room.

Yours truly,
L. M. & W. E. Mann.

SOUTH CASCO.

Isabelle F. Mitchell has returned from Seago Lake.

Last Tuesday eve (14th) as the boys were celebrating the election here the cannon burst, one-half being thrown about 22 feet, causing much havoc among the many spectators. It should teach the boys to be careful while using gun powder.

Mr. Dingley is about to resume work in the coal shop.

WEBER'S MILLS.

Ernest Cobb began his school at North Windham Tuesday, Sept. 13.

Rev. J. Albert Libby, of West Poland, preached at our school house last Sunday, p. m.

Work has been resuming at the corn shop the past three weeks. Corn in this vicinity has yielded well of excellent quality. They finish canning at the shop the present week.

Al Dyer was sick last week, threatened with typhoid fever, but is able to go out. The doctor reports not only an unusual amount of sickness this month, but some of the most difficult cases he ever was called to.

VERB'S MILLS.

All is quiet and news is scarce.

CASCO.

The Corn Shop of Burdham & Morrill has been opening up his home on the eve of the 15th, and gave him a grand reception. Spiller's band discoursed music, and speeches were made by Messrs. Tolman, of Casco, Tolman, of Harrison, father of the Commissioner of Education, and others, after which a grand collation was served, and all pronounced it a good time.

Deputy Sheriff J. B. Mayberry and his brother, Fred W. Mayberry, are at Portland attending court in the capacity of sheriff and juror.

Mrs. Geo. Walker is selling out. She has some fine cows for sale, also farm and household goods. She intends spending the winter in Portland with her brothers.

This community was saddened by the sudden death of Mrs. Katie Nutting, wife of Geo. Nutting, which occurred on the 17th, after a short but severe illness of two days. The doctors pronounced it an aggravated case of Bright's disease. She was a woman of rare virtues, and of friends and to be missed by a large circle of relatives and friends, and deeply mourned by a widowed mother, a brother and sister.

A young daughter of Elizabeth Meserve, aged seven months, is very sick with what seems like cholera infantum.

Oxford County Advertiser.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1886.

(Entered as Second Class mail matter.)

SOUTH WATERFORD.

Severe frosts in this vicinity have done considerable damage.

The condition of Josiah Monro is in some respects somewhat improved over a few weeks since, while in others it remains about the same.

Before Justice Brown, on Monday, Samuel Walker of Harrison, was tried for alleged assault on Horace F. Proctor, and fined $5 and costs. Appeared, G. P. Prescott, plaintiff, C. A. Chapin, defendant. Some time ago John Hodgekins was tried for larceny of a wagon from H. F. Proctor, and discharged. There is material enough around Proctor's Mills for a regular legal picnic.

Alvan Stanwood and Wm. W. Watson have gone to Boston for a few days. No expectation about this.

Alfred Murphy of Detroit, Mich., is stopping at Mr. Stanwood's.

LOVELL.

On Sunday afternoon the "ungracious" church at the centre, nine persons were baptized by Rev. Mr. Stanbrook, and twelve were received into the church.

John M. Farrington has bought the "red house" at the centre, of E. T. Secor, and intends to remain there as a residence. Mr. Farrington with his family has gone to Brooklyn to remain until he can dispose of his property there.

F. Kimball & Co. have been drawing grain and flour from Bridgton, which they keep for sale.

The Christian circle met on Tuesday last with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Eastman.

J. L. Meeker is having quite extensive repairs made on his house. W. O. Brown, H. Russell and J. F. Stearns work there.

M. K. Benis has had quite a number of boarders lately.

BRANTFORD.

The match game of base ball played at West Paris on Saturday afternoon, between the West Paris club and the "spoonmakers" of this village, resulted in the defeat of the latter.

It is reported that Almon Fort Campbell is making a trip with his family to California to spend the winter.

Most of the farmers are digging their potatoes, and corn is about ready to cut. Potatoes are rotting quite badly in some sections.

Business is lively at the Grand Trunk station near the village, and also at the pool mill.

C. E. Houghton is treating his lambsome store to a coat of paint.

MILTON PLANTATION.

Mrs. Maria Flannery of Alton, N. H., with her two young daughters, Clara E. and Ida Flannery, are on their way to spend a short time at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Eliza Fenley.

Dr. James P. Elliott, M. D., is remodeling and making general improvements on his summer residence; he is also making a very neat park around the buildings, enclosing the grounds by a nice fence, removing several large boulders and all the small stones on the ground, making an attractive residence on Zircon Hill.

HAVERHILL.

Rev. L. M. Powers from Bates Theological School, son of C. H. Powers of Bethel, gave a very interesting sermon in Union Hall last week.

A Universalist society was formed here the 24th, with Rev. J. W. Houghton, G. H. Gilchrist, called the first Universalist society of Haverhill.

Isaac Bagwell is making extensive repairs on his house.

Smith Bros. brood mare dropped a horse colt of young Nelson—the very picture of his sire. The colt is not named.

Ant Lindy Jewett from Portland, has been visiting friends here, also C. B. Cummings and wife from Norway.

FRANKLIN PLANTATION.

Charles Bissell's large dwelling house, woodhouses, carriage-house and barn with contents of household goods, furniture, carriages and sleighs, with hayrack and farming tools, and a cow were consumed by fire on Wednesday night, the 19th, at 11:30 p. m. Insured for $10,000. The fire was originated in the barn—cause unknown.

We wish to correct an error which appeared in your paper of last week, in regard to the burning of our steam mill. While we do not know how the mill caught fire, it is certain that it did not originate in the dry room as stated by your correspondent.

The room spoken of was a steam dry room in the north side of the mill on the 3d floor, and the fire when discovered was in the roof of the dry room, and in the sawing room, and 2d floor, on the south side which shows it could not have originated in the dry room.

Yours truly,
L. M. & W. E. Mann.

SOUTH CASCO.

Isabelle F. Mitchell has returned from Seago Lake.

Last Tuesday eve (14th) as the boys were celebrating the election here the cannon burst, one-half being thrown about 22 feet, causing much havoc among the many spectators. It should teach the boys to be careful while using gun powder.

Mr. Dingley is about to resume work in the coal shop.

WEBER'S MILLS.

Ernest Cobb began his school at North Windham Tuesday, Sept. 13.

Rev. J. Albert Libby, of West Poland, preached at our school house last Sunday, p. m.

Work has been resuming at the corn shop the past three weeks. Corn in this vicinity has yielded well of excellent quality. They finish canning at the shop the present week.

Al Dyer was sick last week, threatened with typhoid fever, but is able to go out. The doctor reports not only an unusual amount of sickness this month, but some of the most difficult cases he ever was called to.

VERB'S MILLS.

All is quiet and news is scarce.

CASCO.

The Corn Shop of Burdham & Morrill has been opening up his home on the eve of the 15th, and gave him a grand reception. Spiller's band discoursed music, and speeches were made by Messrs. Tolman, of Casco, Tolman, of Harrison, father of the Commissioner of Education, and others, after which a grand collation was served, and all pronounced it a good time.

Deputy Sheriff J. B. Mayberry and his brother, Fred W. Mayberry, are at Portland attending court in the capacity of sheriff and juror.

Mrs. Geo. Walker is selling out. She has some fine cows for sale, also farm and household goods. She intends spending the winter in Portland with her brothers.

This community was saddened by the sudden death of Mrs. Katie Nutting, wife of Geo. Nutting, which occurred on the 17th, after a short but severe illness of two days. The doctors pronounced it an aggravated case of Bright's disease. She was a woman of rare virtues, and of friends and to be missed by a large circle of relatives and friends, and deeply mourned by a widowed mother, a brother and sister.

A young daughter of Elizabeth Meserve, aged seven months, is very sick with what seems like cholera infantum.

Oxford County Advertiser.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1886.

(Entered as Second Class mail matter.)

SOUTH WATERFORD.

Severe frosts in this vicinity have done considerable damage.

The condition of Josiah Monro is in some respects somewhat improved over a few weeks since, while in others it remains about the same.

Before Justice Brown, on Monday, Samuel Walker of Harrison, was tried for alleged assault on Horace F. Proctor, and fined $5 and costs. Appeared, G. P. Prescott, plaintiff, C. A. Chapin, defendant. Some time ago John Hodgekins was tried for larceny of a wagon from H. F. Proctor, and discharged. There is material enough around Proctor's Mills for a regular legal picnic.

Alvan Stanwood and Wm. W. Watson have gone to Boston for a few days. No expectation about this.

Alfred Murphy of Detroit, Mich., is stopping at Mr. Stanwood's.

LOVELL.

On Sunday afternoon the "ungracious" church at the centre, nine persons were baptized by Rev. Mr. Stanbrook, and twelve were received into the church.

John M. Farrington has bought the "red house" at the centre, of E. T. Secor, and intends to remain there as a residence. Mr. Farrington with his family has gone to Brooklyn to remain until he can dispose of his property there.

F. Kimball & Co. have been drawing grain and flour from Bridgton, which they keep for sale.

The Christian circle met on Tuesday last with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Eastman.

J. L. Meeker is having quite extensive repairs made on his house. W. O. Brown, H. Russell and J. F. Stearns work there.

M. K. Benis has had quite a number of boarders lately.

BRANTFORD.

The match game of base ball played at West Paris on Saturday afternoon, between the West Paris club and the "spoonmakers" of this village, resulted in the defeat of the latter.

It is reported that Almon Fort Campbell is making a trip with his family to California to spend the winter.

Most of the farmers are digging their potatoes, and corn is about ready to cut. Potatoes are rotting quite badly in some sections.

Business is lively at the Grand Trunk station near the village, and also at the pool mill.

C. E. Houghton is treating his lambsome store to a coat of paint.

MILTON PLANTATION.

Mrs. Maria Flannery of Alton, N. H., with her two young daughters, Clara E. and Ida Flannery, are on their way to spend a short time at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Eliza Fenley.

Dr. James P. Elliott, M. D., is remodeling and making general improvements on his summer residence; he is also making a very neat park around the buildings, enclosing the grounds by a nice fence, removing several large boulders and all the small stones on the ground, making an attractive residence on Zircon Hill.

HAVERHILL.

Rev. L. M. Powers from Bates Theological School, son of C. H. Powers of Bethel, gave a very interesting sermon in Union Hall last week.

A Universalist society was formed here the 24th, with Rev. J. W. Houghton, G. H. Gilchrist, called the first Universalist society of Haverhill.

Isaac Bagwell is making extensive repairs on his house.

Smith Bros. brood mare dropped a horse colt of young Nelson—the very picture of his sire. The colt is not named.

Ant Lindy Jewett from Portland, has been visiting friends here, also C. B. Cummings and wife from Norway.

FRANKLIN PLANTATION.

Charles Bissell's large dwelling house, woodhouses, carriage-house and barn with contents of household goods, furniture, carriages and sleighs, with hayrack and farming tools, and a cow were consumed by fire on Wednesday night, the 19th, at 11:30 p. m. Insured for $10,000. The fire was originated in the barn—cause unknown.

We wish to correct an error which appeared in your paper of last week, in regard to the burning of our steam mill. While we do not know how the mill caught fire, it is certain that it did not originate in the dry room as stated by your correspondent.

The room spoken of was a steam dry room in the north side of the mill on the 3d floor, and the fire when discovered was in the roof of the dry room, and in the sawing room, and 2d floor, on the south side which shows it could not have originated in the dry room.

Yours truly,
L. M. & W. E. Mann.

SOUTH CASCO.

Isabelle F. Mitchell has returned from Seago Lake.

Last Tuesday eve (14th) as the boys were celebrating the election here the cannon burst, one-half being thrown about 22 feet, causing much havoc among the many spectators. It should teach the boys to be careful while using gun powder.

Mr. Dingley is about to resume work in the coal shop.

WEBER'S MILLS.

Ernest Cobb began his school at North Windham Tuesday, Sept. 13.

Rev. J. Albert Libby, of West Poland, preached at our school house last Sunday, p. m.

Work has been resuming at the corn shop the past three weeks. Corn in this vicinity has yielded well of excellent quality. They finish canning at the shop the present week.

